

Sandra Scott-Revelle

Writer, Textile Artist, Speaker

Writing:

2007 to 2009: Journalist for the Arizona Informant, African-American owned newspaper

2008 to 2010: Devotions and children's short stories published online.

2018 to present: Compiling short stories from United States slave narratives.

Textile Art:

2020: George Bush Library and Museum. "Art Past and Present from a Black Artist's Perspective." Seven original works exhibited.

2020 September 13-20: Tyler Museum of Art. "Art of Peace Exhibit: Creating Community." Two original works exhibited: "Betsey Stockton" and "Spring Outing."

2019 to present: Creating new textile panels to accompany the short story compilation.

Speaking:

2021 scheduled engagements: Kaufman County and Ellis County Quilt Guilds. Rescheduled from 2020 due to COVID-19.

Creative Memberships:

2018: Matt Tommey Created to Thrive Mentoring Program

2018: Scribal Prophets

2019: Textile Artists Org - Stitch Club

2020: Hope Writers